Congrats! Here's a brick

It seems like they have handed out everything when it comes to awards - Oscar's golden statue, MTV's moonman, Nickelodeon's surfboards and most recently, a good ol' brick. Yes, the Brick Awards took place in New York Tuesday night at the Nokia Theater and attracted Susan Sarandon, Mandy Moore, Fran Drescher and Petra Nemcova who were on hand to honor 12 young winners (ages 11 to 25) for helping to make the world a better place. The awards will air on the CW Network on Thursday. Now, all those youngsters have to do is figure out where to display their shiny new brick. Perhaps, they will follow Sarandon's lead and put it in the bathroom where she keeps her Oscar. See where other winners have stashed their statue.
