

Treasure Coast teens asked to collect school supplies for their communities

Thursday, July 16, 2009

TREASURE COAST — DoSomething.org and Staples are teaming up for the 2nd annual national Do Something 101 school supply drive. Joining them to support the cause is Grammy-winning singer-songwriter Ciara.

Treasure Coast-area teens are encouraged to make a difference this summer by collecting school supplies and dropping them off at their nearest Staples store, through Sept. 19.

Staples customers can get involved by donating $1 at any Staples store with 100 percent of the proceeds benefiting local teens in need.

All school supplies and donations will be given to local not-for-profit organizations that serve disadvantaged youth, including Boys & Girls clubs of Indian River , Martin and St. Lucie counties.

Drop off in any Staples store in the three counties.
